

KHITS1067.com had to say about Ritchie and Candice's Wedding!

Jeff's music news:

RITCHIE BLACKMORE TO WED CANDICE NIGHT

If you happen to run into Deep Purple founding member Ritchie Blackmore in the next couple days, be sure to congratulate him. That's because the guitarist is marrying singer Candice Night next month. The two currently perform together in Blackmore's Night and met at a Deep Purple charity event in 1989.

Their wedding on October 5th, much like their band, will have a Renaissance theme. It'll take place at a castle in upstate New York and the bride's gown will feature a corset-style top. As for why it took the two so long to get hitched, in a press release, Candice explained, "We were touring and traveling so consistently, that we just really wanted to stop and celebrate our love and our experience together." Learn more at BlackmoresNight.com.